

Today's Martyrs – April 1917

Friday April 6, 1917

The United States declared war on Germany

April 1917, date unknown

Turkey: Marash

Beatrice Rhoner (aged 41, missionary, Swiss citizen, orphanage seized by the government and the Armenian children she had illegally sheltered were dispersed, suffered a 'collapse' and left the country, at least 720 children survived the genocide due to her efforts)

https://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/Beatrice_Rohner - with translation

<http://www.raoulwallenberg.net/news/100-years-of-armenian-genocide/>