

Today's Martyrs – November 1940

Saturday November 13, 1940

Germany: Berlin

Lothar Ernst Paul Kreyssig (aged 42, district court judge in Brandenburg an der Havel, member of the Confessing Church, reported to the Minister of Justice on July 8, 1940 that he suspected that mentally disabled adults and children under the jurisdiction of his court were being murdered in an euthanasia campaign, later issued an injunction prohibiting the movement of his charges to the euthanasia centers, and filed a charge of murder against Philipp Bouhler, a top aide to Adolph Hitler; UPDATE: summoned to the Justice Ministry, after being shown the T4 euthanasia program authorization that had been signed by Adolph Hitler said "The Führer's word does not create a right", was then told "If you cannot recognize the will of the Führer as a source of law, then you cannot remain a judge")
