

Today's Martyrs – June 1984

Monday June 18, 1984

Russia: Moscow

Veniamin Naprienko (husband of Natasha, arrested for unfurling a protest banner that read "Number of Prisoners for the Work of the Gospel Is Constantly Increasing and Reaches 200 Persons Now" in a church meeting that included U.S. National Council of Churches members, the Americans mostly supported the arrest, released later that day)

<http://www.cmpage.org/betrayal/chapt5.html>

Thursday June 21, 1984

Nicaragua

Fr Luis Amado Pena (arrested in 1983 for transporting explosives; UPDATE: Mass invaded by a mob of nearly one thousand Sandinistas who called for his execution by firing squad)

<http://www.cmpage.org/betrayal/chapt7.html>

June 1984, date unknown