

Today's Martyrs – February 1995

Saturday February 25, 1995

India: Udainagar, Indore district, Madhya Pradesh state

Sr Rani Maria Vattalil (aged 41, stabbed to death by an assassin hired by extortionists in retaliation for her work with poor women)

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rani_Maria_Vattalil

February 1995, date unknown

Pakistan

Salamat Masih (aged 14, arrested on blasphemy charges in May 1993; shot during an April 1994 court hearing; UPDATE: convicted though no evidence of a 'crime' was produced, sentenced to death, conviction overturned 2 weeks later, fled the country)

Rehmat Masih (arrested on blasphemy charges in May 1993; shot during an April 1994 court hearing; UPDATE: convicted though no evidence of a 'crime' was produced, sentenced to death, conviction overturned 2 weeks later, fled the country)

https://openlibrary.org/books/OL1009175M/In the Lion's Den - page 36

United Kingdom: East Ham, London

Ayotunde Obanubi (community college student, killed by nearly 15 Muslim students armed with knives and machetes for allegedly insulting Islam by being disrespectful of Ramadan)

<http://barnabasfund.org/US/News/Archives/Editorial-Government-needs-to-speak-with-single-voice-on-Islamic-extremism-after-Woolwich-murder.html?&quicksearch=Ayotunde+Obanubi>

