Farshid Fathi (convert, imprisoned in Evin Prison for six years; UPDATE: wrote a letter to his father "Please accept my warmest greetings from the heart of prison in the name of Jesus...I spent 361 days in a locked cell, and I did not see the sunlight for days, but the mercies of the Lord were made new every morning...The narrow way that I am passing through I see as a cup that my Beloved has given me, and I will drink it to the end, whatever that end might be...Two of the brothers send you greetings from here. Also two sisters who are separated from us by a few high walls. I too here am continuously praying for you and your loving family. Please convey my greetings to all dear brothers and sisters who have been praying for me and my family and tell them: In our land the fig tree does not blossom, the produce of olive has failed. The flock is cut off from the fold. Yet we rejoice in the Lord and take joy in the God of our salvation. Because neither the walls nor the barbed wires, nor the prison, nor suffering, nor loneliness, nor enemies, nor pain, nor even death separates us from the Lord and each other")
