Events – August 2017

Tuesday August 1, 2017

Indonesia: Deyiai district, Papua

Bishop John Philip Saklil (UPDATE: called for accountability after police shot into a crowd, killing one and injuring seven including two children, said "With similar cases that occur continuously and those that are not resolved professionally, it only creates a bad impression that both the police and military are not the protector of the people but the protectors of immoral criminals")

Indonesia: East Nusa Tenggara province

Viktor Bungtilu Laiskodat (aged 52, member of parliament, accused of blasphemy after saying that Islamic political parties wanted to form a caliphate)

India: Ahodia

Sajan K George (UPDATE: reported on the detention of two unnamed Nepalese couples on forced conversion charges)

India: Jharkhand state

Shibu Thomas (founder of Persecution Relief, which has been reported as supporting at least five Christian families "whose bread-winners were killed just because of their Christian faith")

Bishop Jairag Mark (reported to favor state recognition of Islamic school certificates: "Often their degree certificates are not recognized by employers, both private and state, leading to a denial of job opportunities. This adds to the backwardness of the community")

India: Ranchi, Jharkhand

Cardinal Telesphore Toppo (UPDATE: criticized the state government for working to pass an anti-conversion law, said "Forced conversions do not exist. We are free people with a free will and a free conscience and intelligence. No one can force another to convert")

<http://www.pravoslavie.ru/english/105513.htm>

Greece: Mt Athos

Archimandrite Gregory Zumis (reported to have criticized the government for failing to repeal a 2012 law which imposed property taxes on monastic properties, wrote "We live on the Holy Mountain. Some of the monasteries on this sacred land have inherited fertile plains, but others—arid and barren mountain slopes. Thus, some of the monasteries [thank God!] can provide for themselves, but others struggle to survive, relying on people's charity")

<http://www.pravoslavie.ru/english/105510.htm>

United Kingdom

Bishop Mark Davies (UPDATE: reported to have commented in Lourdes, France on the government's new anti-extremism policies and public polling that showed one out of three Britons thought Christianity was extremist: "There is a destructive extremism we ought to fear, one which seeks not only to deconstruct marriage and the family, but the very identity of the human person, which calls for medical experimentation with no reference to ethical boundaries, that decrees the unborn may live only to terms fixed by man, and demands legal protections be removed from the sick and the aged. It is such extremism which surely threatens the foundations of society...It is even possible that the very faith in Christ on which our nation was built might become a focus of the Government's counter-extremism agenda")

China: Wenzhou, Zhejiang province

Pastor Huang Yizi (aged 43, UPDATE: called to a police station for interrogation, released that night, later wrote "Thank God. Thank you all for praying for me. After being kept by the government by all sorts of excuses, I finally gained temporary freedom at 9 p.m. yesterday. Although the government claims that the [bail] enforcement measures have been removed, the case itself is not finished. I know who is in charge of the future. Our hearts will always be at peace, because Jesus resides there. God bless this era and the pastors and the lawyers who are suffering for the name of God. Thank you for your likes and comments in Moments ["Moments" is a feature of the Chinese social media platform WeChat that allows users to access updates from their friends]. Although I cannot reply to them all, I read every comment carefully. There is only one thing I want to say: thank you all. I wouldn't be so safe without your prayers, your attention, and your reposts of my message in your Moments and group chats. I am deeply moved. Your actions ensured my safety. It is so nice to have you. God bless you all")

Syria: Aleppo

Archbishop Jean Clement Jeanbart (UPDATE: said in St Louis, Missouri, USA “Dear friends, I am determined now, more than ever – and like I have never done before – to apply myself and to act in order to restore the Christian prestige of our ancestral city, Aleppo, pearl of the East and the West, cradle of the civilizations and Christianity, the birthplace of cultures. I am determined more than ever to stand by our young people in that devastated place to help them rebuild what was destroyed and recover what was lost”)

United Kingdom

Rev Barry Trayhorn (prison gardener at HMP Littlehey, Cambridgeshire, volunteer prison chaplain, resigned on November 4, 2014 from his gardening position after being harassed following a May 2014 homily; lost his claim for discrimination and constructive dismissal on March 10, 2016; UPDATE: appeal denied, wrote "Prisoners need to hear God's word just as much as anyone else. If people come to a Christian chapel service, we cannot hold back the gospel truth that God forgives those who repent. In no way did my speaking from 1 Corinthians 6 intend to bully or mistreat anyone. I shared the Gospel with them because I am motivated by the love of Christ to tell them that they can find forgiveness. I told the prisoners I am the worst sinner I know...Christianity is under attack in this nation. I cannot help but wonder if other faiths would be given the same treatment")

Andrea Minichiello Williams (UPDATE: wrote "To say that quoting a verse from the Bible can be offensive, could have serious implications on the freedom of prison ministers to share the good news of the gospel. It should not be for the state to decide which parts of the Bible can and cannot be quoted during preaching, nor to dictate that verses that some may find unpalatable should be interpreted to fit with current social norms")

<http://www.christianpost.com/news/prison-worker-banned-from-chapel-services-for-citing-bible-on-homosexuality-loses-appeal-194625/>

Venezuela

Cardinal Jorge Urosa Savino (UPDATE: condemned the shooting of demonstrators who opposed the government's attempt to nullify the constitution via a fraudulent election of a 'Constituent Assembly', said "In the name of God, stop the repression!...there are citizens who were murdered and wounded by Venezuelan military personnel and, presumably, by armed forces that act illegally and criminally. This is totally intolerable and cries out to heaven")

India

Over 100 Christians signed An Open Letter to the Heads of all Churches and other Christian Leaders concerning Hindu nationalism "We, as Indian Christians, are concerned at the steady shift we see in our country from a pluralist, secular, democracy to a Hindu Rashtra [the supremacist Land of the Hindus]. What used to be fringe, has now become mainstream. There is a systematic design to undermine the Constitution. Official machinery often seems working in tandem with the 'vigilantes'. Street lynching, victims charged as accused, stage-managed trials, all on the basis of one's religious and caste identities. Media seems mute, silent in self-censorship, coerced by the state, or leashed by its corporate ownership...In unison with members of all faiths, ideologies, we should marshal India's tremendous spiritual resources in consolidating peace, resolving conflicts and infusing a sense of values in the body politic"

A C Michael (former Delhi Minorities Commission member; UPDATE: signatory, said that while the letter was sent to church leaders it was meant as a call to every Christian to unite for justice)

Fr Ajaya Kumar Singh (director of the Odisha Forum for Social Action [OROSA]; UPDATE: signatory, said that the letter was meant to encourage Christians to better coordinate their responses to persecution)

Tuesday August 8, 2017

India: Mohanpur, Roorkee District, Uttarakhand state

Pastor Amar Stephen (convert, beaten after RSS paramilitary members invaded a worship service, said "They barged inside the house church and questioned, 'What is your business here?' I told them we were praying. They said, 'You are not praying, you are converting people.' I said, 'No, no. We are not converting. We are praying to the Lord, we are worshipping Him. Is taking the name of the Lord itself conversion?' ...I was dragged to the police station held by the hands by the RSS activists. They took out a procession to a distance of about half a kilometer with an intent to shame. They shouted, 'Look, look here is the man who follows Jesus Christ. God who could not save Himself, how can He save the world? How can He save you?'")

Syria: Raqqa

Christians escaped from ISIL control

Matay (aged 22, Syriac Military Council member, said "We got a Christian family out yesterday... This is our goal in the campaign to liberate Raqqa")

Alexi Chamoun (Syriac Military Council member, said "ISIL are using civilians as human shields inside the city")

Sawsan Karabidian (aged 45, relative of Alexey, escaped with six others in her family, was able to take only her rosary and her two pet parrots, said "I didn't want to leave, but there was so much bombardment around us that we fled...When Raqqa was bombed, we would gather together to pray to the Lord so things would be calm. We have lived through the hardest moments these last three days because of the fierce bombing. I was terrified for my husband and my family...When ISIL entered they burned the churches, all the prayer books, the angels, the statue of the Virgin Mary and of Jesus the Messiah...They forced us to wear the headscarf and allowed us to reveal our faces to distinguish us from Muslims. We had to hide our faces to avoid insults")

Alexey (aged 50, relative of Sawsan Karapetyan, said "We used to celebrate our holidays in secret, spending them at home in fear," said Alexey, 50. "We would light a bit of incense just to feel that it was a religious holiday. We all left Raqqa and all of our things stayed behind. It's a painful feeling. We tried to stay but we couldn't take it anymore")

Karadij Karadjian (aged 50, said "I can't describe the feeling when we saw the Christian fighters welcoming us... We were forced to pay tribute by hand and we were humiliated and insulted, what a homeland that makes you pay an additional tax because you are different...ISIL blew up all of the churches, which devastated us. I haven't prayed inside a church since 2013. If we rebuild them, we will pray again in Raqqa")

Ireland: Inchicore, Dublin

Niamh Ui Bhriain (Life Institute, UPDATE: commented on the pro-abortion group that trespassed in a church and draped a pro-abortion sweater on the altar for a pro-abortion advertisement “Everyone, including all decent people who have no faith themselves, knows you shouldn’t mess with a place of worship whether it’s a church, a synagogue or a mosque or anywhere else. For some pro-abortion campaigners, their hatred for religion seems to be the primary reason they support abortion, even though pro-life people see this as a human rights issue. This shows, once again, their extreme intolerance towards anyone who dares to have a different opinion, and their desire to silence people of faith. Abortion campaigners have repeatedly called for the churches to be silenced on abortion, but reasonable people will agree that they have a right to make their position known...It’s no surprise really that they know feel they can target altars in Catholic churches but this actually just reveals their intolerance and bigotry to the public”)

Nigeria

Rev Jen Tivkaa Moses (husband, church national education director, abducted by Fulani tribesmen, US$275,000 ransom demanded; UPDATE: released)

Rev Ishaku Yaro (announced the release on Facebook: “Praise God we arrived in Jos safely with our CE [Christian Education] Director at about 1 a.m. on the 9th August 2017. Special prayers took place at the ECWA GS house, and he was reunited with his wife. Please allow him to rest...Presently, he will be somewhere resting for at least 3 days before coming back home”)

Rev Dr Jeremiah Gado (wrote “Considering the short distance between the police checkpoint and the spot in which the pastor and other passengers were attacked by the kidnappers, one would have expected a swift response by the police to rescue them, but unfortunately they were helplessly abandoned in the hands of the kidnappers. This scenario, like many others as have been attested to by many residents along Abuja-Kaduna road, lends credence to the possible collaboration of some bad egg police and other security personnel in the increasing crime of kidnapping and armed robbery along that highway, or how do you explain the fact that for all the period our pastor was in the hands of the kidnappers, they neither changed position nor mobile number, and yet the security agents were not able to apprehend or track them...Very recently, one of our pastors who had just regained his freedom was held hostage for 5 days by some daredevil young Fulani kidnappers who seized him along Jere-Bwari road, just 200 meters away from a major police checkpoint on the curve bridge after shooting the driver of the vehicle in which he was travelling. We therefore use this opportunity to call on the federal government to do the needful in strengthening security of lives and property in the country, especially in the country’s highways, through which many Nigerians ply in search of their daily bread...The Evangelical Church Winning All is seriously worried about the growing spate of insecurity and criminality in Nigeria which appears to have overwhelmed the government and its security agencies, as nowhere, either in home, marketplaces, workplaces, worship places and our highways, are now safe. Like many other Nigerians, members of the ECWA are suffering the brunt of insecurity on our highways, which have been taken over by armed robbers and kidnappers who kill, maim, torture, rape, steal and extort outrageous ransoms from their helpless poor victims while security agents look away. The federal government should do more to closely monitor the activities of security personnel on the highways and fish out bad eggs among them who metamorphose into criminals on the roads”)

India: New Delhi

Christians again protested the government's 1950 order that removed legal protections for Christian [and Muslim] untouchables

Dr John Dayal (UPDATE: said "This law is the biggest violator of religious freedom because it denies 150 million or more low caste individuals the right to choose their faith. They have to be Hindus or they have to be of a faith which deemed to be Hindu, like Buddhism or Sikhism...In effect, the 1950 Presidential Order has acted as a powerful anti-conversion law because the law has punitive consequences for anyone to change from Hinduism to Christianity or Islam. It effectively denies Hindus of low caste origin the freedom of faith which is the birth right of every Indian citizen")

Fr Savarimuthu Shankar (UPDATE: said "It's a discrimination based on one's religion and it's unconstitutional. The State has denied and deprived Christians of their rights and privileges enshrined in the constitution")

Arun (aged 19, son of Ratnam, Mudugula caste member, denied an engineering scholarship)

Ratnam (father of Arun, Mudugula caste member, said "We dreamed of my son doing a dignified job and thought our fate of doing menial job is over forever. But, my son did not get the admission to study engineering as we cannot afford to pay without the help of the government. We are denied this help because we follow the Christian faith")

Naresh (alias, government employee, said "Sometimes I have to participate [in] customs and rituals to prove that I am a Hindu to protect my job. I do not know how long I need to live this double life")

India: Muzzafarnagar, Uttar Pradesh state

Pastor Amar Stephen (convert, beaten after RSS paramilitary members invaded a worship service in Mohanpur, Roorkee District, Uttarakhand state on August 8, 2017, said "They barged inside the house church and questioned, 'What is your business here?' Central African Republic

Bishop Juan Jose Aguirre Munos MCCJ (Spanish citizen; UPDATE: wrote “The massacre in Central Africa Republic in Gambo, a village 70 km from Bangassou, was even mentioned yesterday by the Holy Father...Several tens of people were shot dead in Gambo on 4 and 5 August. It all began when Anti Balaka militia attacked Gambo, which for the past four years has been in the hands of so called ex-Seleka [Muslim militia]. More recently the Seleka increased attacks on the local people, women in particular, many abducted from their homes in front of their husbands and later raped. On 4 August Anti Balaka entered Gambo to oust the Seleka. From what I have been told as soon as the Anti Balaka arrived, troops of the MINUSCA UN Mission there immediately opened fire. Reportedly the Anti Balaka then opened fire on the UN military who in turn in an exaggerated reaction, fired wildly hitting civilians as well. The Anti Balaka were forced to take cover in the forest, while the Seleka, back in Gambo finding a Red Cross Team in the hospital holding a meeting, preceded to slit the throats of all present, men women and children...So the massacre, by the Seleka, was triggered by the reaction out of all proportion of the MINUSCA UN troops who when attacked usually do have a violent reaction. They are trigger-happy. I know of a young seminarian and his father killed by stray bullets coming from MINUSCA mission soldiers. This is all deeply saddening...Then I ask myself why, once Gambo had been saved from the Anti Balaka, did the UN MINUSCA leave the people in the hands of the Seleka? These so called Peace Keeping Troops whose job is to disarm all the factions in the country, did forcefully disarm the Anti Balaka but not the Seleka who appear more heavily armed than ever. Here is a sense of complicity which we fail to understand”)

Andrea Minichiello Williams (Chief Executive of Christian Concerns; UPDATE: wrote "...The State is interfering with the gospel. It is mandating that the gospel be shrunk down to fit society's sensibilities. The judgment [against Rev Barry Trayhorn] implies that the Bible legitimizes hate and mistreatment – but in reality, it offers salvation and transformation to men who have committed horrific crimes. How long will the true Church stay silent in our land? What case is required to wake us up? How many more cases? Will the true Church wake up when I am arrested? Probably not. The bishops of the Church of England are in no danger of being arrested. Will the true Church wake up when a 'hate crime' is reported against a small, faithful evangelical church? Possibly not. How about a large one? Or a larger church network? Can we not see, in this case and others, that this country no longer honors God, and is banning His Word!...")

Cardinal Robert Sarah (Ghanaian national, spoke at a Mass for the dedication of an historic park that commemorated the 1793 Vendean revolt "Your work is necessary! For our times seem to have been numbed! As we face the dictatorship of relativism, as we face a new thought terrorism that once again seeks to rip God from the hearts of children, we need to rediscover the freshness of mind, the joyful and fervent simplicity of these saints and these martyrs...Who shall stand up today for God? Who shall dare to confront the modern persecutors of the Church? Who shall have the courage to arise, armed only with the rosary and the Sacred Heart, to face the columns of death of our times, as are relativism, indifferentism and the contempt of God?...We are living in a world marked by the dictatorship of money, of benefits, of riches. The joy of gratuitous giving is everywhere despised and trampled...Even now, perhaps more than ever, the ideologues of the revolution want to annihilate the natural place for gift of self, of joyful generosity and of love! I am speaking of the family! Gender ideology, the contempt of fruitfulness and of fidelity are the new slogans of this revolution. Families have become the new Vendées to exterminate. Their disappearance is being methodically planned... They are ready to attack Africa with new infernal columns in order to pressure on families and to force on them sterilization, abortion and contraception. Africa, like the Vendée, will resist!")

Micah Yohanna Audu (aged 18, son of Yohanna Audu, shot dead)

Mai’angwa Samaila (aged 50, husband of Safiya Samaila, church elder, said “He [Yohanna Audu] went to find out who were the men on the premises of the church at that time of the night when they shot him, and he died instantly. His son, who heard the sound of the gunshot, ran out to find out what had happened since his dad had just gone to the church, he too was shot and killed...As the shooting and capturing of the women was going on, some residents in our village rushed to the Catholic church and rang the church’s bell, alerting others on the attack on the village. This forced the armed Muslim men to beat a retreat. This saved so many lives that would have perished during the attack...I frantically called on heads of security agencies in our area, the police and army, but I was told that they were unable to come to our aid because their vehicles had no fuel or were in bad working condition...We believe that Christian communities here are being persecuted because of our faith. The government is aware about such invasions of Christian communities but has not done anything to put an end to the menace. The sad thing is that it is only Christians that are being killed or kidnapped in our area, as there was never any Muslim community attacked or a Muslim kidnapped”)

Pastor Xu Shizhen (received notice from officers to stop public preaching, said she will not comply: “The government doesn’t allow me to spread the Gospel. I’ve been doing missionary work for 38 years in Xianning. I established the local churches. They said that my current church was not registered, and that we could not do that. They visited twice, at 11 AM and 7:30 PM. They told me that [my preaching] violated the Regulation on Religious Affairs, because I wasn't registered. They also said that the certifications that could prove my clerical status had expired...I left [the official church] after I established Hongqiao Church. [The officer] asked me why I refused to accept the inspection of the bureau, and I told him that it was because they had evicted me from the Three-Self Church. 'I founded so many churches, yet you threw me out. I believe in Jesus Christ. I don't believe in you')

Pastor Naresh Paul (commented on threats made after the conviction of a Hindu cleric on multiple sexual assault charges "On hearing about the conviction, followers of Guru Gurmeet rioted in Panchkula. 32 people were killed by fanatical zealots of the sect and an estimated 350 were injured with further riots expected. Rampagers smashed cars, homes and businesses and then set them alight. Christian leaders were warned about attacks on churches should Guru Gurmeet be convicted. The men who made the threats were very serious and extra Police protection was provided to religious buildings which prevented a crises. Christians are an easier target for hooligans like these who have previously targeted Sikhs and have a close link with the reigning Hindu fundamentalist BJP party. I call upon Christians across the world to pray for a restoration of peace in India and an end to the unnecessary violence we have seen in recent days")
