India

Event: Leaders of all faiths publicly opposed the statement of the leader of the RSS paramilitary organization that "the main purpose of Mother Teresa in serving the poor was to convert them to Christianity"

Sajan K George (UPDATE: said "Mother Teresa often exhorted those who came to her to be good Hindus, Muslims, Christians or Sikhs. This blasphemous comment on the Saint, a holy person loved and venerated by millions of people of all castes, creeds and nationalities , reveals the divisive and dangerous nature of Mohan Bhagwat")

Dr John Dayal (UPDATE: said "The words of Mohan Bhagwat on Mother Teresa are petty, condemnable and more than outrageous. Every sane person in India has rejected this...the importance of the words of Bhagwat is in the timing with which they were spoken. He spoke a week after the acclaimed speech of Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the defense of religious freedom. It is evident that the Sangh [the Sangh Parivar, the nationalist Hindu movement of which RSS is part] believes that the prime minister should not really have said what he said")

United States - Washington state

Barronelle Stutzman (aged 70, sued by the state attorney general in April 2013 for declining to provide floral arrangements for a same-sex wedding; UPDATE: found guilty, refused to accept a $2,001 settlement which would require her to violate her religious beliefs, wrote "Washington's constitution guarantees us 'freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment.' I cannot sell that precious freedom. You are asking me to walk in the way of a well-known betrayer, one who sold something of infinite worth for 30 pieces of silver. That is something I will not do...Your offer reveals that you don't really understand me or what this conflict is all about. It's about freedom, not money. I certainly don't relish the idea of losing my business, my home, and everything else that your lawsuit threatens to take from my family, but my freedom to honor God in doing what I do best is more important...I pray that you reconsider your position. I kindly served Rob for nearly a decade and would gladly continue to do so. I truly want the best for my friend. I've also employed and served many members of the LGBT community, and will continue to do so regardless of what happens with this case. You chose to attack my faith and pursue this not simply as a matter of law, but to threaten my very means of working, eating and having a home. If you are serious about clarifying the law, then I urge you to drop your claims against my home, business, and other assets...Our state would be a better place if we respected each other's differences, and our leaders protected the freedom to have those differences. Since 2012, same-sex couples all over the state have been free to act on their beliefs about marriage, but because I follow the Bible's teaching that marriage is the union of one man and one woman, I am no longer free to act on my beliefs")
