Iran

Naghmeh Shariat Panahi Abedini (wife of Saeed Abedini, who has been sentenced to eight years imprisonment; UPDATE: reacted to a White House statement that President Obama would likely veto any bill that conditioned relaxation of Iranian sanctions with her husband's release "Our government must not forget that Saeed is not being held by the reformists with whom they negotiate but by radical hardliners who oppose what he represents – a Christian convert and an U.S. citizen. We cannot leave my husband's fate in the hands of these radicals. I implore our government to remember the urgency of bringing Saeed home to our family")

Two Christians were sentenced to additional prison time for "action against national security through collusion and gathering", the gathering in question was a meeting where they met with a friend to say goodbye before the beginning of one's original prison term

Ebrahim Firouzi (convert, aged 30; rearrested on August 21, 2013 while visiting two other Christians in Karaj; UPDATE: sentenced to five additional years' imprisonment)

Sevada Aghasar (arrested on August 21, 2013 in the Karaj office of Masoud Mirzaei; released from prison in Tehran on March 2, 2014; UPDATE: sentenced to five additional years' imprisonment)

Syria: Hassakah

Archbishop Jacques Behnan Hindo (UPDATE: announced that ISIL has completely surrounded his city "We are going through a terrible time. The jihadists of the Islamic State attacked Hassakah for two days. They were warded off by the army and Kurdish militias. But we are cut off, like an island surrounded by jihadists from all sides...We have not had any news regarding the fate of 232 Assyrian hostages - among whom there are 51 children and 84 women - and initial contacts in an effort to secure their release have so far been unsuccessful")

<http://www.aina.org/news/20150501174849.htm>

Lebanon: Beirut

Jack Zayya (Syrian refugee, said "We are searching for the quickest way to go to Europe or Canada, maybe America...I had a car wash and, thank God, it provided for us for a long time. But it's all gone now - the house, our belongings, the car wash, everything...Kidnappings were about getting ransom from rich families or individuals at first. With Da'esh {ISIL}, though, there is no negotiating. We had to pay the jizya tax or die...Our children saw many beheadings. We were obligated to watch public executions. What kind of world is that for kids to grow up in? They were always scared")

Chorbishop Yatron Koliaana (UPDATE: has pleaded with refugees to not leave, said "I'm telling them not to leave this land. This is our land. They say, 'OK - we're with you. This is our land, but what are we supposed to eat, dirt?")

India: Hyderabad, Telagana state

Over 400 Christians and others demonstrated against recent attacks against Christians

Solomon Raju (president of the Twin Cities Christian Youth Fellowship, said “Pastors carry the Bible and preach the message of love. They don’t carry weapons and they don’t force anybody to change their religion. The government must ensure that there is freedom to practice and propagate a religion of one’s choice, as our constitution guarantees”)

Iraq: Bagdad

Micheal Abou Fady (killed)

Iraq: Erbil, Kurdistan

Fr Paul Thabit Mekko (UPDATE: spoke about government planning to defeat ISIL "We heard about the meeting among the Ministers and we were also told that the preparation of the operations will be led by a Kurdish soldier of the Iraqi army. But it is not possible to say if and when the campaign to liberate Mosul and the Nineveh Plain will begin. We have to see if and how it will take account of Ramadan, the Muslim fasting month that begins after mid-June. Of course, many want to go back to their homes. Among the Christian refugees there are those who in the meantime have moved to Jordan or Lebanon. Only a few went to France, and some have also returned. It is not true that everyone wants to flee. Many dream of returning to their life as it was before")

Monday May 4, 2015

China: Zhejiang province

Pastor Zhang “Bike” Mingxuan (president of the Chinese Association of Christian Family Churches; UPDATE: said “One thing I’m sure of is that the authorities in Zhejiang are taking down crosses again, and they are doing it everywhere. From Ningbo to Lishui, they have begun to remove crosses. I believe the statement made by the central government that they will stop demolishing churches in Zhejiang is a lie. Local officials taking down Christian crosses is persecution of Christianity”)

<http://www.chinaaid.org/2015/05/zhejiang-authorities-remove-cross.html>

India: Dhar District, Madhya Pradesh

Rev Bharat Singh Mehda (obtained permits for a church meeting of 5,000 Christians, the local government cancelled the permits at the last moment, the official said “[Christians] are free to hold small prayer meetings in the local church, but no permit will be granted for large-scale services”)

Sajan K George (UPDATE: said “the presence of many people is just an excuse to cancel. In fact, the government of Madhya Pradesh is not new at large scale religious events. In February 2011, almost 2 million people attended the Narmada Samajik Kumbh, a gathering organized by Hindu nationalist groups who openly engaged in hate propaganda against Christians”)

Palestine: East Jerusalem

Rami Fellemon (director of Jerusalem Evangelistic Outreach, described a mob attack on an Ethiopian Orthodox monastery that began after a dispute between a Christian and a Muslim “When they came, it was a wave of anger that was - you cannot describe it, you cannot understand it. Because when one kid is fighting with another kid, and 60 to 80 people come and start smashing doors and throwing stones on windows and doors of Christian families and smashing the cross of the convent, this is totally not about a kid hurting a kid. This is more about Islam and Christianity. It's more about persecution", the rioters spray-painted on the monastery the same slogans used by ISIL when beheading the Ethiopian refugees in Libya)

Nashat Filmon (Bible Society general director, "The dark ideology of ISIL is spreading all over the region like cancer. This is also including the Holy Land. Christians, overall, live here in peace and harmony with Muslims in Jerusalem and the West Bank, but incidents do happen from time to time, and it's true that these incidents have recently increased, especially in the Old City of Jerusalem...Pray for the relationships between Muslims and Christians to be good despite all of the problems. Pray that the Christians would act as they are called to be, 'salt and light' and a living testimony. Pray against this dark, satanic, and attacking spirit of fundamentalism, and for the Christians to respond in a way that reflects Christ")

Egypt: Minya province

Bishop Agathon (UPDATE: spoke in an Arabic television interview on the continuing refusals by the government to investigate abductions and to allow the building or repair of churches, said "We as Copts are human beings. And envy takes us when we see our Muslim brothers build mosques where they will, how they will, at any place and at any time! And the State helps them. But as for us, we cannot build anything and that which is already open is being closed...We, the Copts are citizens with rights and see Muslims get whatever they want, while we are always prevented...Copts are between a state anvil and aggressor hammer")

China: Suqian, Anhui province

Pastor Zhang “Bike” Mingxuan (president of the Chinese Association of Christian Family Churches; UPDATE: said “I called Pastor Wu Changle [on May 7, 2015], and the police listened to the phone call. The next day, six domestic security protection squad [DSPS] agents from the Suqian Municipal Public Security Bureau threatened Pastor Wu, saying that he must not welcome me”)

Pastor Wu Changle (said “They [DSPS agents] came to my house and said they knew [Pastor] Zhang had contacted me and planned on coming to visit. They asked if I wanted him to visit and said the Chinese House Church Alliance has been banned. They said that if he comes to my home, I should just tell him I’m not there. I said Christians cannot tell lies. I’m home, and he wants to visit me because we haven’t seen each other in a long time. Why would I lie to him? The police said if I really want to see him, I can do so, but we can’t go to a gathering. They also said if I decide to welcome him, I should notify the DSPS that Zhang is coming and when”)

Church of the Brethren [EYN] concluded a congress at which measures aimed at countering Boko Haram attacks were taken

Rev Daniel Mbaya (said "Because so many of the churches of EYN have been damaged or destroyed, this year's Majalisa [congress] conducted an ordination service for new pastors. The current ordained ministers gathered around the candidates, laying hands on them and commissioning them for the work ahead. All this is part of the EYN and Church of the Brethren plan to strengthen the church in Nigeria")

Rev Stanley J Noffsinger (general secretary Church of the Brethren USA, said "the attendees had a sort of shocked expression on their faces. The proceedings were constantly being interrupted by announcements of tragedy – news of a pastor being killed or abducted, or a village being overrun by the terrorist group Boko Haram”)

Rev Samuel Dante Dali (husband of Dr Rebecca Dali; UPDATE: said that 1,290 churches out of 2,280 had been destroyed with over 700,000 church members displaced since 2009, and has begun to construct 'rescue centers aka Brethren villages' to resettle church members, added “The peace heritage of the church is still the only way consistent with the gospel that we uphold”)
