Resources for understanding current Christian witness and martyrdom

Weekly Commentary - 2021-02-21 through 2021-02-27

Pastor Bulus Yikura was abducted on Christmas Eve 2020 in Borno state in Nigeria by the Islamic State's West Africa Province (ISWAP), a Boko Haram offshoot. By the time you read this, Pastor Bulus Yikura may have less than 24 hours before ISWAP executes the death sentence they have imposed upon him. Please take some time right now and pray fervently for his safety and release.

We also have accounts on our report this week - please click here to read in full - from France, India, Nigeria (yes, more than one story), Sudan, and Uganda. The French story is of an elderly bishop who just died in the Covid-19 pandemic: he is noted here because he witnessed the beginning of the martyrdom of other Christians in Cambodia under the Khymer Rouge in 1975. Please pray for all of them as well.
